

hello,

i am sending this note to you to ask you to please vote against the upcoming proposal to further deregulate media ownership in this country. it is my opinion that further deregulation of media ownership would be a grave disservice to all americans and effectively bring about an end to the kind of free press and broadcast that formerly helped make this country a great place in which to live and learn.